Wilf Mbanga, Editor

About us

Established in 2005, The Zimbabwean has become recognised worldwide as an authoritative and accurate publication of record and a reliable source of information about Zimbabwe.

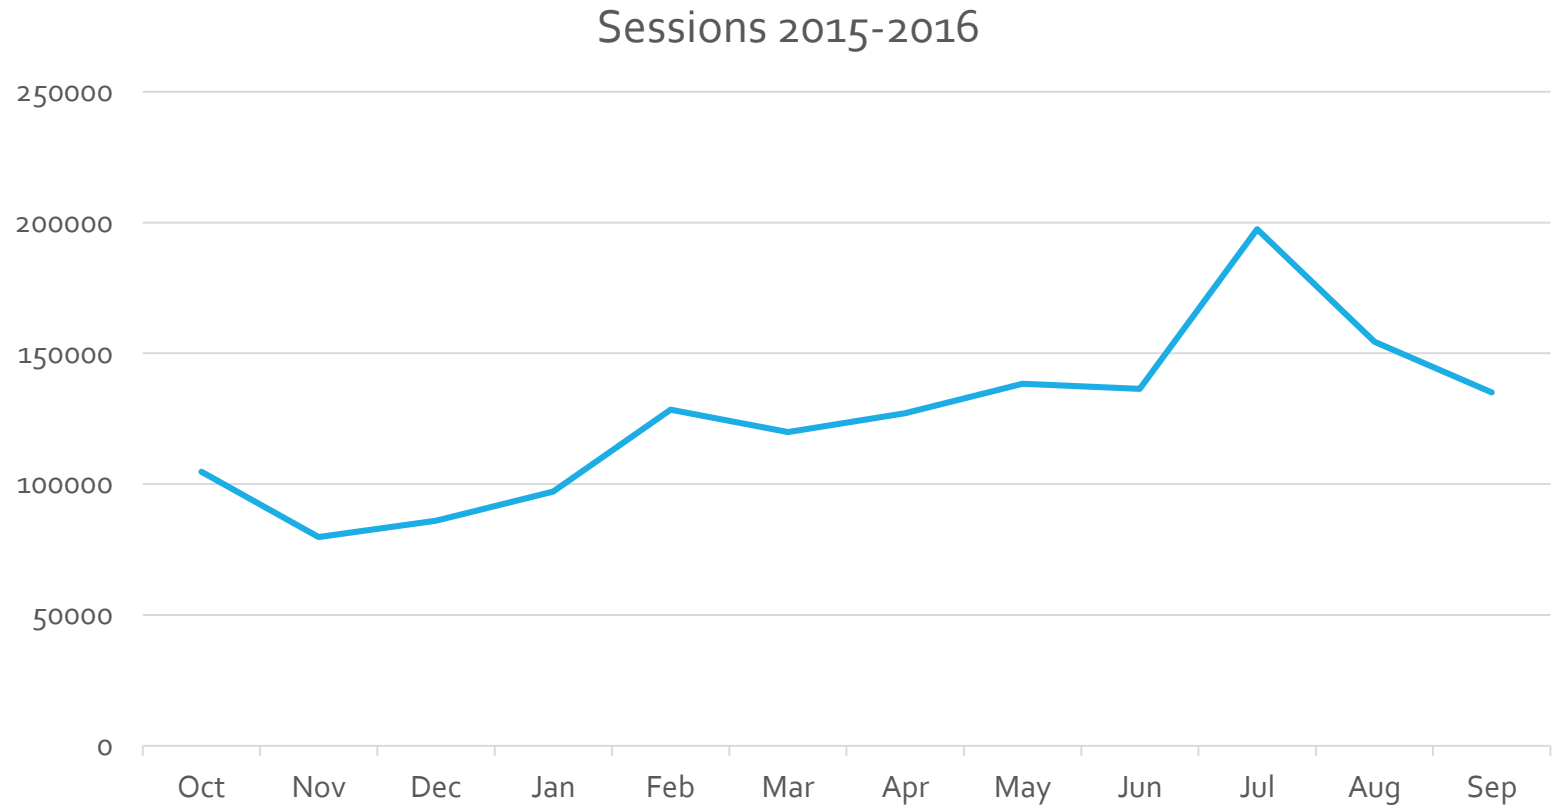

Until October 2015 our weekly newspaper was distributed in Zimbabwe, South Africa and the United Kingdom, while all content was also available on line. In line with modern trends, the newspaper has become an online publication.

Consistently ranked in the top 10 websites in Zimbabwe by Alexa, The Zimbabwean offers advertisers a flexible range of advertising solutions delivered using industry best practices and proactive campaign management.

OPINION by #Jera: 'President Mugabe will make a rare trip to New York when he attends the UN summit of 23 September. After that 'shame, shame, shame' speech the entire nation is already cringing in anticipation of his next tactless outburst. When he expected cash from China, all he received was monopoly money. If there was anybody with courage in Zanu (PF) this would be the time to strongly advise the President that he will benefit more from having allies rather than enemi... See More
